1. GENERAL INFORMATION (DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE)

To facilitate reading, only the masculine form is used in the appellation which, of course, always implies the feminine one.

The basic objective of the program is to train the ski instructor in the field of off-piste skiing for guidance and teaching to people and groups of basic, advanced and expert level, as well as for participation in the execution of all skiing activities that take place with the help of motorized ski lifts (ski lifts, treadmill, snowmobile, helicopter, etc.) outside the organized ski area or on its outskirts.

By passing the exams (theoretical and practical) and the internship, the candidate obtains the diploma of SKI GUIDE. Participation in the theoretical and practical parts of the course, as well as passing the theoretical exam are necessary conditions for access to the safety test (CTT-Safety test), passing which is one of the necessary conditions for obtaining the CTT certificate.

2. CONDITIONS FOR REGISTRATION

To enroll in the Ski Guide course, candidates must meet the following requirements (the requirements apply only to this form of course organization; the regular course will be announced later):

1. have acquired the title Strokovni delavec 1 – športno treniranje (MAESTRO), at least ex U2,
2. are ZUTS members,
3. have paid the membership fee to the OO-ZUTS and have the membership of the SZS-ZUTS Slovenia (blue card / Sloski - ZUTS) for the current season,
4. are at least 18 years old,
5. have at least a level IV education,
6. have passed a practical placement test, if required for the course and if the course organisers decide to require it. Applicants must have sufficient skiing knowledge to ski safely outside of an unregulated ski area, otherwise they may be excluded from the course.

Copies of the certificates of the necessary requirements can be sent scanned to zuts@sloski.si.

7. COURSE DELIVERY AND REGISTRATION

The practical part of the course takes place under the guidance of instructors and employees of the off-piste skiing commission of ZUTS Slovenia, while the theoretical lessons are held by the instructors and licensed lecturers, as well as by experts in the specific fields related to the training program.

The theoretical exam consists of a written test on the topics covered in the theoretical lessons and a practical part concerning the following topics: rescue call, analysis of the avalanche forecast, guidance of the group off-piste, search and rescue of two buried avalanches, as well as one of the three modules concerning meteorology, mountain hazards or analysis of the snowpack. The practical exam takes place as part of the safety test or during the internship.

Registration for the course is open to anyone who meets the requirements set out in point II. (registration requirements). The course will be organized in case of a minimum number of 8 candidates (including foreign language participants).

Registration for the course must be completed no later than November 7 2025 at the link: <https://tinyurl.com/SkiGuideZUTS>.

Documents to be sent for application:

- properly completed application form
- copy of the ski instructor certification
- copy of the Modra Kartica/Sloski Card, valid for the current season
- copy of identity document
- copy of diploma/certificate of education
- copy of the payment of the application fee

8. ACCOMMODATION

Candidates enrolled in the course will be informed in good time about the possibilities of accommodation and the purchase of the ski pass.

9. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Course participants must pay the application fee of € 740.00, by the dates indicated, to the bank account IBAN: SI56 0400 1004 6477 054 SWIFT/BIC koda: KBMASI2X (OTP bank d.d., Slovenska cesta 58, 1000 Ljubljana).

The course includes all the lessons of teachers and instructors, the lecture notes, the use of video resources, the organization and management of the course and exams, the classrooms, the diplomas, the coats of arms. For non-native speakers, a translator is included in the theoretical and practical part of the course, with the exception of exams. Candidates carry out the internship, which is mandatory for obtaining the Ski Guide diploma, individually with the tutor. To obtain the CTT certificate, the internship is not mandatory.

The costs of food and accommodation, transport and ski passes are the responsibility of the candidates themselves.

Candidates must present themselves for the course with complete avalanche equipment.

Attendance of the course is at your own risk and we recommend that you take out accident and third-party liability insurance. In the event of an accident, the course organizer assumes no liability. In case of bad weather, the organizer reserves the right to cancel the course or move the venue.

More information will be provided by email after the registration deadline.
